| What do they call George Washington's false teeth? Presidentures! Why did Abe Lincoln grow a beard? He wanted to look like the guy on the 5 dollar bill! What do you call doing 2,000 pounds of laundry? Washing-ton! What rock group has 4 guys that don't sing? Mount Rushmore Did you hear the joke about the Liberty Bell? Yes! It cracked me up! JOKES!  LOL! | Presidents' Day is an American holiday meant to celebrate George Washington and all the presidents of the United States. Even though George Washington's birthday was February 22nd, the day is officially celebrated on the third Monday in February. It was originally called Washington's Birthday but in 1971 it changed to Presidents' Day. Eating cherry pie is popular when celebrating Presidents' Day, due to the story about George Washington cutting down a cherry tree. Enjoy a slice of cherry pie and celebrate!  | | | |
